

MATERIAL INFORMATION

August 11, 2022

Corficolombiana S.A. informs that, BRC Ratings – S&P Global, confirmed the AAA long-term and BRC 1+ short-term debt ratings for Corficolombiana.
See annex.

BRC Ratings - S&P Global confirmed Corficolombiana's
long-term debt and short-term debt ratings

Bogotá, August 11, 2022.

BRC Ratings - S&P Global, Sociedad Calificadora de Valores, confirmed the AAA long-term debt and BRC 1+ short-term debt ratings for Corficolombiana.

The Company's results strengthened the confidence of its stakeholders, proving its commitment and key role in the country's economic and social reactivation in some of the most important economic sectors, including infrastructure, energy and gas, agribusiness, finance, and hospitality; as a result, the company was ranked among the 10 largest companies in Colombia.

"Corficolombiana serves as a good indicator of what is happening in the country, since we invest in sectors that are driving economic growth and reactivation. We have received this confirmation with the understanding of the great responsibility it entails, as we are fully aware of the impact our operations and those of our companies have in the regions where we operate. The long-term vision and sustainability has made it possible for us to overcome each of the challenges faced and those that will inevitably arise in the future, which is why we will continue to strengthen the Corficolombiana Sostenible strategy. It is our firm belief that we can build a country through investment and employment generation," said María Lorena Gutiérrez, president of Corficolombiana.

In 2021, the Company was included for the second consecutive year as a member of the Dow Jones Sustainability Index, Mercado Integrado Latinoamericano (MILA) and is also a signatory of the Principles for Responsible Investment initiative (PRI); all investments have established sustainability models and implemented a Human Rights policy and statement.